February 11, 2009-Hyannis, MA- “A big hello to the Mid-Atlantic from all of us at Cape Air,” says Cape Air founder and CEO Dan Wolf. “Tickets for the new non-stop service from the towns of Hagerstown and Lancaster are now out for sale and the initial response is fantastic. We look forward to introducing Maryland and Pennsylvania to our singular MOCHA HAGoTDI* brand of customer service while providing convenient, dependable and affordable air service to Baltimore-Washington International Airport with non-stop service to sixty-two national and four international destinations.”

Beginning on March 24th the Hyannis based Cape Air, the largest independent regional airline in the United States, is offering four daily round trips from Hagerstown and five trips from Lancaster with round trip fares starting at $89.

“We look forward to working with Cape Air to connect Hagerstown and Lancaster with BWI Thurgood Marshall Airport,” said Timothy L. Campbell, A.A.E., and Executive Director of the Maryland Aviation Administration. “Cape Air will provide quick, convenient access to BWI Marshall for more regional customers.”

Carolyn Motz, Hagerstown airport director said, “The Cape Air commuter hop from HGR to BWI has all the qualities frequent flyers treasure. It is affordable, connectable, reliable, convenient, timely and quick. We are thrilled to have this airline serving our Hagerstown to Baltimore passengers!”

J.J. Cunningham, Secretary of the Lancaster Airport Authority said, “We in the Lancaster community welcome this new air service and pledge to do everything possible to make it a permanent and successful enterprise. In today’s climate of reduced air service affecting communities all over the U.S. we are extremely fortunate to have attracted Cape Air and their brand of customer service.”

About Cape Air: As one of the largest independent regional airlines in the United States Cape Air annually flies over 680,000 passengers with over 125,000 flights to destinations around the world including New England, New York, the Caribbean, Florida and Micronesia. With a fleet of fifty-six Cessna 402s and two ATR-42s, the employee-owned company operates up to 525 flights a day. Based in Hyannis, Massachusetts, Cape Air also operates flights under the Nantucket Airlines brand. Cape Air is a code share partner with Continental Airlines in the Caribbean and with JetBlue Airways in New England. In addition, Cape Air has ticket and baggage agreements with most major airlines. Cape Air’s unique brand of customer service, MOCHA HAGoTDI*, has won the airline accolades as ‘Best Airline’ on Nantucket, Martha’s Vineyard and in the US Virgin Islands. The airline has been recognized for outstanding philanthropy in the communities it serves and Cape Air President Dan Wolf was recently awarded the prestigious Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year Award. Cape Air tickets are available at a number of on-line outlets including Travelocity and Expedia and can also be purchased online at www.flycapeair.com. Cape Air reservation agents are also available to book your flights, for no additional charge, at 800 352 0714.
