

News Advisory

Cape Air Extends Island Specials to New York

Contact: Michelle Haynes

508-498-3440

mhaynes@flycapeair.com

For Immediate Release-March 08, 2010-Hyannis, MA- New York getaway weekends for Islanders on both Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard are minutes away and more affordable than ever with Cape Air's Winter White Plains sale now going on. For $299 round trip, including all taxes and fees, you can leave the Islands on Friday and return on a Sunday. "The New York special is proving to be so popular we are extending the offer through May 23rd," says Cape Air's Communications Director Michelle Haynes. "You can catch the 4:55 pm out of the Vineyard or the 4:15 pm out of Nantucket and arrive in New York City in time for the curtain to rise on your Broadway show." Cape Air flights arrive at the 'no hassle' Westchester County Airport in White Plains, New York followed by a cab ride to the train station and directly into midtown Manhattan.

Flight and booking information at capeair.com and 866-Cape-Air (866-227-3247.)