For Immediate Release-April 05, 2010 Hyannis, MA –Evening flights added to Cape Air’s flight schedule between Hagerstown, Maryland, Lancaster, Pennsylvania and Baltimore-Washington International Airport. (BWI) “The passengers spoke and we listened,” says Cape Air’s Communications Director Michelle Haynes.

“The response to our new non-stop service between BWI and Hagerstown and Lancaster has exceeded our projections with passengers happy about the $100 round trip fare, but we heard loud and clear a request for better connections in the early evening and that is exactly what happens with the new schedule beginning on April 8.”

The new Hagerstown – BWI schedule features five round trip flights on Mondays and Fridays, four flights Tuesday through Thursday and three flights on weekends:
