For Immediate Release-August 25, 2010-Hyannis, MA-Passengers traveling on Missouri's newest regional air carrier, Cape Air, can now book their entire trip, to and from Kirksville, on-line with Cape Air and American Airlines.

"You can plan your getaways for work or pleasure and book your entire travel itinerary at one website," says Cape Air's Vice-President of Planning, Andrew Bonney. "The Cape Air codeshare with American Airlines gives Kirksville passengers seamless connections with one click for ticket and boarding passes along with convenient baggage transfers to your final destination." Cape Air offers three daily round trips between Kirksville and St. Louis with a flight time of about an hour. Fares between Kirksville and St. Louis are $49 each way including all taxes and fees and are available at <http://www.capeair.com>. "This is certainly an affordable and accessible alternative to what can be a four hour drive," Bonney added.

Also included in the American Airlines codeshare agreement are Cape Air's other Mid-west cities, Cape Girardeau, Mo, and Quincy and Marion, Ill. Cape Air and American Airlines passengers can also earn American Airlines AAdvantage® miles on the entire trip, including the Cape Air portion.

Cape Air invites the Kirksville community to their official launch celebration for the new route on September 17 at the Kirksville Regional Airport.

About Cape Air:

Now in its 21st year, Cape Air is one of the largest independent regional airlines in the United States, annually flying over 610,000 passengers to destinations around the world including New England, New York, the Caribbean, and Florida, the Mid-Atlantic, the Midwest and Micronesia. With a fleet of sixty-two Cessna 402s and two ATR-42s, the employee owned company operates up to 600 flights a day. Based in Hyannis, Massachusetts, Cape Air also operates flights under the Nantucket Airlines brand. Cape Air is a code share partner with Continental Airlines in the Caribbean and Micronesia, with JetBlue Airways in New England and American Airlines in the Mid-west. In addition, Cape Air has ticket and baggage agreements with most major airlines. Cape Air's unique brand of customer service, MOCHA HAGoTDI,* has earned the airline accolades as 'Best Airline' on Nantucket, Martha's Vineyard and in the United States Virgin Islands. The airline has been recognized for outstanding philanthropy in the communities it serves and Cape Air President Dan Wolf was recipient of the prestigious Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year™ Award.
